Election of a Lifetime

There has been a lot of talk about how important this Presidential election is for this country and it is all true- In my lifetime there really hasn't been a more stark choice for the future.

We need to take responsibility to make sure our registration is valid. We know where to go to vote or when to mail in our ballots. To check on your voter registration status-

If you know someone who still hasn't registered to vote the mail-in registration deadline has passed they must now register in person. For information on how to do that- <http://www.secstate.wa.gov/elections/register.aspx>

For election night fun watch the vote come in as it is posted by the State, click on the race you want to watch- <http://vote.wa.gov/Elections/WEI/Results.htm>

And, if you don't have this site bookmarked yet you should it is the Washington State official website and it works surprisingly well. For all things Washington from apples to the PDC to contacting elected officials go to -
